

fleischer.training

The e-learning portal for professionals and doers in the butcher's trade fleischer.training is the solution for simple, uncomplicated and qualified further training. Here butchers receive competently prepared learning content on relevant topics:

Basics such as product knowledge, sales tips at the counter, machine knowledge, finishing processes or e-commerce. Even recognized mandatory training courses are offered free of charge by fleischer.training. A joint production of the German Butchers' Association and afz - allgemeine fleischer zeitung.
